

LANCASTER CITY QUIZ LEAGUE RULES.

Section A – League Organisation

1. The League shall be known as The Lancaster City Quiz League and shall provide friendly association and competition without any political or profit making purposes.
2. The rules of the League shall be binding on all registered players.
3. A committee shall be appointed at the Annual General Meeting by show of hands or by ballot, comprising Chairman, Secretary, Treasurer and not less than five nor more than nine other members.
4. The Committee shall have the power to settle and arrange all matters relating to the League and not covered by these rules and to choose a headquarters prior to the start of the season.
5. The Committee shall meet as many times as deemed necessary and shall call General meetings as and when required the time and place to be decided by the Committee. At each meeting the Treasurer will present a vouched statement of accounts.
6. The Committee may elect from among their number deputies for Chairman, Secretary and Treasurer to act in the absence of those officers and may at any time fill any vacancies occurring between the officers and members of the Committee. Members of the Committee who fail to attend three consecutive meetings will be deemed to have resigned.
7. There shall be a quorum at Committee meetings of 50% of the members including Chairman, Secretary and Treasurer or their deputies.
8. Any additional rules or amendments to rules shall be dealt with at the AGM at the end of the season at which copies of the rules will be available and at which 'Rules of the League' shall be a separate item on the agenda. Notices of motions and nominations to the Committee must be given in writing to the secretary at least 21 days prior to the meeting.

Section C – Competition Rules

1. The League shall be divided into as many sections as the Committee deem necessary.
2. Two points shall be awarded to the winning team in a league match. In the event of a draw one point will be awarded to each side. No match shall, for any reason be played for more than two points.
3. In the event of a tie for any place in any division at the end of the season, the tie shall be resolved by using the league scores over the whole season of the teams involved in the tie. If a team fails to turn up for a match or fails to raise the minimum number of players that team shall be deemed to have played the match and scored no points and their opponents will be awarded a win and two points. When a team has no game due to (a) a blank date in the fixture list or (b) their opponents not providing a team, then that team shall receive an average score based on the scores of the teams who played in that team's division on that Monday evening.
4. The League shall run two knockout competitions.
 - (a) The Dennis Wigham Trophy will be played for by the teams with the higher averages on completion of half the league fixtures.
 - (b) The Tony Clare Trophy will be played for by the teams with the lower averages on completion of half the league fixtures. For the purpose of these trophies the League will be split as evenly as possible.
 - (c) The format of the team knockout competitions shall be decided by the Committee at the start of the season.
5. In all team knockout competitions if the scores are level at the end of the last round proper, complete tie break rounds are to be played until one side has established a winning lead at the end of a round. If necessary the spare questions (in sequence) may be used as additional tie break rounds. A coin shall be spun to see who takes the first tie break question.

4. Matches will be played on Monday evenings, starting at 8.30 pm with a time allowance of 15 minutes. Should a match be delayed for any longer than this then the non-offending team will have the right to claim the match (although some tolerance should be exercised).
5. Sets of questions will be authorised by the Committee and no others will be used.
6. The questions will be issued to the home team in sealed envelopes which will be opened by the question master in the presence of both teams. The captain winning the toss shall have the choice of playing order. It is the responsibility of the home team to provide a question master.
7. A match shall consist of no fewer than 32 questions to each team and the winner shall be the team scoring the most points.
8. (a) All questions must be answered and the answer completed within 60 seconds (except as stated in part (b)). For a correct reply the question master shall award three points. Should a person whose turn it is to answer give an incorrect answer or be unable to give an answer the captain may appoint another player to take the question within the overall time limit. If the answer is correct the question master will award one point. If the side whose question it was be unable to answer or are wrong on completion of their attempts the question will be passed over to the opposition who will have ten seconds to complete an answer and if correct be awarded one point. No conferring is allowed.
 - (b) In finals of cup competitions the time allowed shall be forty five seconds.
 - (c) If a team has only three players they shall occupy the first three places in their team and their fourth question in any round shall be treated as a passed question, a correct answer by any player scoring one point.
 - (d) A question setter may include one or more rounds or an equal number of questions within a round in which part scores

- of two points or one point may be given for specified part answers.
9. Should any team be found guilty of prompting in any shape or form the question master shall treat answer as incorrect and proceed with the next question.
10. Should any member of the audience prompt the player answering the question, the question master shall cancel the question and ask one of the spare questions provided.
11. It is the duty of the team captain to ensure that his/her team's supporters do not prompt in any way.
12. (a) All objections to questions and answers must be detailed on the back of the score sheet accompanied by a fee of 50 pence per objection which will be returned if the Committee find the objection was justified. In the event of a team raising an objection and the Committee being unable to reach an acceptable decision an independent and mutually acceptable arbitrator may be called in and their decision shall be final and binding.
 - (b) A team shall formerly register an intention to object to a question or answer prior to the next question being asked. In the event of the objection being in the last question of the match, the objection must be raised before the question master signs the score sheet.
 - (c) Objections can only be raised by playing members of the team.
 - (d) Team captains are not signing to decide the validity of the objection but merely to witness the correct procedure has been carried out.
13. Captains of both teams must sign the score sheet which must then be signed by the question master.
14. A fee of £40 per team will be paid at the start of the season.
15. The captain of the home team shall take full responsibility for collecting the questions prior to each home game from
